

Bhutan multifunctional energy storage power supply procurement

Overview

Who owns the energy sector in Bhutan?

Bhutan's energy sector operations have separate commercial management and ownership from the government. The state-owned Druk Green Power Corporation (DGPC) owns and operates power plants while the Bhutan Power Corporation, also state-owned, performs transmission and distribution.

How can Bhutan improve its energy security?

To improve Bhutan's energy security while strengthening resilience to water variation and climate change, it is required to diversify power generation sources and types, including (i) solar farms, rooftop and floating solar, and agrivoltaics; and (ii) storage and pumped storage hydropower and small hydropower. 4 H. Nagai et al. 2017.

Is Bhutan a power surplus country?

Demand and supply gap. Bhutan has been a power surplus country on an annual basis, but there is a significant shift in seasonal power situation in Bhutan due to the recent changes in surging electricity demand and capacity shortage in the winter period.

What is the power scenario in Bhutan?

The power scenario in Bhutan has undergone a major shift with demand growth especially in the industrial sector outpacing capacity addition. Industrial consumption represented by high voltage consumers has been sharply increasing since 2021. This consumer category has directly increased the overall consumption of Bhutan.
