

Mexican energy storage solar container lithium battery agent

Overview

Will energy storage attract renewables investment in Mexico?

With Mexico's president-elect having announced an intent to attract renewables investment, energy storage was the subject of much discussion at the Intersolar Mexico trade show.

Will Mexico develop energy storage technologies in the next decade?

However, we expect Mexico to develop its energy storage technologies significantly over the next decade, as well as its lithium mining industry, as it increases its renewable energy capacity as part of a global green energy transition.

Will Mexico be key to the development of lithium batteries?

We believe Mexico will be key to the future of the development of lithium batteries as home to the world's largest single lithium field - "La Ventana" in Sonora. The country likely holds around 17 other deposits, across Baja California Sur, Coahuila, San Luis Potosí, Sonora and Zacatecas, that are largely undeveloped.

Will Mexico expand its solar market?

As Mexico expands its solar market, we expect companies to increase their investment in battery storage operations to optimize the solar power generated across the country. But Mexico will have to improve its regulatory framework for renewable energy for the industry to become more efficient and attractive to investors.
