Overview

Can rooftop solar photovoltaic (PV) power the Benoni community?

To develop a sustainable energy solution for the Benoni community, this study proposes a hybrid energy system integrating rooftop solar photovoltaic (PV) generation with existing national grid supply (RSA Grid). The system design aims to reduce dependence on the grid while improving energy reliability, affordability, and environmental performance.

Can rooftop solar PV systems be integrated with local energy storage & grid electricity?

This study investigates the feasibility of integrating rooftop solar PV systems with local energy storage and grid electricity in residential housing complexes in Benoni, Gauteng Province. A hybrid energy system was proposed and modeled using detailed consumption data from a typical community in Benoni.

Is rooftop solar PV a sustainable solution for urban South Africa?

The integration of rooftop solar PV and energy storage with grid electricity presents a highly cost-effective and environmentally sustainable solution for residential communities in urban South Africa. The findings support policy initiatives aligned with Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 7: “Affordable and Clean Energy”. 1. Introduction.

Are rooftop solar PV systems viable in urban residential complexes?

However, understanding their economic and environmental viability in urban residential contexts remains limited. This study investigates the feasibility of integrating rooftop solar PV systems with local energy storage and grid electricity in residential housing complexes in Benoni, Gauteng Province.
