Namibia substation energy storage power supply price

Overview

---

The project, which is expected to cost around 25 million Euros, will involve the construction of a 54 MW / 54 MWh BESS Plant at the Omburu Substation, located 12 km southeast of Omaruru, Erongo Region. How can Namibia use surplus energy from South Africa?

A special arrangement between NamPower and Eskom, the South African Power utility, enables Namibia to buy and utilise the surplus energy from SA at affordable rates. We are, however, all aware of the energy crisis that has hit South Africa and that will, inevitably, also spill over to us.

Who can develop small power generation facilities in Namibia?

Parties interested in developing small power generation facilities may also look to some of Namibia's Regional Energy Distributors (REDs). Some REDs are looking to develop their own – albeit limited – generation capacity. Partnering with a RED familiar with the ECB's IPP framework might result in faster project implementation.

Does Namibia have a solar power plant?

The government, the ECB, and NamPower have all expressed interest in grid-connected solar and wind renewable solutions, and in May 2015, Namibia inaugurated its first-ever solar power plant – a 4.5 MW plant – which represents one percent of the country's current production of energy.

Does Namibia have a centralized power system?

Namibia is evolving from a centralized model dominated by one large utility, NamPower, to a hybrid decentralized model with multiple actors generating and supplying electricity. This represents a significant shift in the generating mix.
