

Which lithium energy storage power supply is best in Auckland New Zealand

Overview

Will New Zealand invest in battery energy storage systems?

The Electricity Authority Te Mana Hiko has published a draft two-year roadmap that sets out our work to support investment in battery energy storage systems (BESS). BESS will become increasingly important in the future as New Zealand's power system relies on more intermittent and variable generation. Work set out in the roadmap includes:

How will a lithium battery help New Zealand's electricity supply?

Contact's CEO Mike Fuge says the industrial-sized lithium battery will play a key role in maintaining a reliable supply of electricity for New Zealand, particularly during periods of high demand throughout the winter. It will also ultimately help with Contact's transition away from an increasingly constrained gas market.

Where to buy a lithium battery in New Zealand?

Cell-Supply NZ started in 2022 and is based in Tauranga. It's one of New Zealand's top lithium battery shops. With the goal of "bringing cells to those who need them," they offer lithium-ion cells like 18350, 18650, and 21700. These cells have high energy density, low self-discharge, and a wide operating temperature range.

Are battery systems safe in New Zealand?

In fact, Standards NZ have signed an agreement with UL to enhance standardisation and safety across New Zealand in a variety of industries including energy storage.⁷⁵ The safety standard detailing the requirements a battery system must meet to be used as an energy storage system for stationary applications.
